

RULES & CONSTITUTION of Tivyside Riding Club

1. Name of Club

The club will be called Tivyside Riding Club (Hereinafter known as 'The club') and may also be known as Tivyside RC. The Tivyside Riding Club is affiliated to The British Horse Society. The club may also be registered with appropriate statutory bodies as required by its constitution and organisation.

2. Club Structures / Legal Structures

The Club is an Unincorporated Association.

3. Aims & Objectives

The aims and objectives of the club will be to undertake the following within the area:

- To promote participation in horse riding as a sport and recreational activity within the local community.
- To provide opportunities for coaching and competitive opportunities within the amateur sport of horse riding.
- To promote good fellowship amongst riders.
- To improve and maintain the standard of riding and horsemanship.
- To support and co-operate with organisations that promote equestrianism in all forms.
- To concern itself with any matter which will benefit the horse and horse user in the local community.
- To provide suitable facilities to further the aims of the club.
- To use monies surplus to running expenses for the benefit of the members.

4. Membership

- a) Membership of the club is open to anyone interested in promoting, coaching, volunteering or participating in horse riding, regardless of sex, age, disability, ethnicity, nationality, sexual orientation, religion or other beliefs.
- b) Senior Membership shall consist of persons who have attained the age of eighteen (18) years on 1st January.
- c) Junior Membership shall consist of persons who have not attained the age of eighteen (18) years on 1st January, but in line with BRC policy, the minimum age for junior membership of the Tivyside Riding Club, is 14 years.
- d) Honorary membership may be conferred by the committee upon any person deemed by them to have rendered notable service to the club
- e) To become a member, persons shall complete an application form as prescribed by the committee and pay the annual membership fee.

f) The membership will consist of the following categories:

- Senior Member
- Junior Member

g) The committee may refuse or remove membership only for good cause, such as conduct or character likely to bring the club, the sport, or The BHS into disrepute. Appeal against refusal or removal may be made to a committee of members established for the purpose. However, refusal of membership due to the lack of available facilities is allowable on a non-discriminatory basis.

h) All members will be subject to this constitution and by joining the club will be deemed to accept these regulations and any codes of practice that the club has adopted.

i) The annual subscription shall be payable via the Sport:80 website in line with the issued reminders. Any member whose subscription is more than three months in arrears shall have their name removed from the membership list after written notice to the effect has been sent to them.

j) The annual subscription shall be determined by the committee.

k) For insurance purposes, participants of Rallies or Members Only Shows must be fully paid up members of the club.

It is recommended that all horses attending Rallies or Members Only Shows are vaccinated for Equine Influenza to protect the Equestrian Centres that we use.

5. Sports Equity

a. The club is committed to ensuring that equity is incorporated across all aspects of its development. In doing so it acknowledges and adopts the following Sport England definition of sports equity:

Sports equity is about fairness in sport, equality of access, recognising inequalities and taking steps to address them. It is about changing the culture and structure of sport to ensure it becomes equally accessible to everyone in society.

b. The club respects the rights, dignity and worth of every person and will treat everyone equally within the context of their sport, regardless of age, ability, gender, race, ethnicity, religious belief, sexuality, or social/economic status.

c. The club is committed to everyone having the right to enjoy their sport in an environment free from threat of intimidation, harassment, and abuse.

d. All club members have a responsibility to oppose discriminatory behaviour and promote equality of opportunity.

e. The club will deal with any incidence of discriminatory behaviour seriously, according to club disciplinary procedures.

6. Committee

- a) The affairs of the club shall be conducted by a committee which shall consist of Chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer and a minimum of eight (8) other committee members.
- b) The officers of the committee shall be elected at the AGM.
- c) All committee members must be members of the Club.
- d) If agreed, the committee shall elect a Vice Chair from among its members.
- e) The term of office for the committee shall be three years, and members shall be eligible for re-election.
- f) If the post of any officer or ordinary committee member should fall vacant after such an election, the committee shall have the power to fill the vacancy until the succeeding Annual General Meeting.
- g) The committee will be responsible for adopting new policies (including with regard to Safeguarding, Health and Safety, Equality & Diversity and Disciplinary matters), codes of practice and rules that affect the organisation of the club. These policies will be in-line with those of The British Equestrian Federation, British Horse Society and British Riding Clubs.
- h) The committee will have powers to appoint any advisers to the committee as necessary to fulfil its business.
- i) The committee will be responsible for disciplinary hearings of members who infringe the club rules/constitution. The committee will be responsible for taking any action of suspension or discipline following such hearings
- j) The committee meetings will be convened by the Secretary of the Club and be held no less than 6 times per year.
- k) Only Members and Officers of the committee will have the right to vote at committee meetings.
- l) The quorum required for business to be agreed at Management Committee meetings will be five (5)
- m) No junior member may be a voting member the club. However, if the club has a junior membership the committee may appoint a junior committee to discuss matters relevant to the junior membership. This committee, through the Chairperson of said committee, may make recommendations to the adult committee for their consideration.

7. Finances

- a. The club treasurer will be responsible for the finances of the club.

- b. The financial year of the club will run from 1st September and end on 31st August in each year.
- c. All club monies will be banked in an account held in the name of the club.
- d. An authorised statement of annual accounts will be presented by the treasurer at the Annual General Meeting. (Authorised in this case shall mean that the accounts will be checked by a committee member selected by the Chairperson)
- e. Any cheques, BACS or other electronic means of payment (PayPal etc.) drawn against club funds should hold the signatures of or be authorised by the treasurer or one of up to three other officers.
- f. All members of the club shall, if it is not an incorporated organisation, be jointly and severally responsible for the financial liabilities of the club.

8. Annual General Meetings and Special General Meetings

- a. General meetings are the means whereby, subject to any other constitutional provisions, the members of the club exercise their democratic rights in conducting the Club's affairs.
- b. The club shall hold the Annual General Meeting (AGM) in the month of November to:
 - Approve the minutes of the previous year's AGM.
 - Receive reports from the Chairman and Secretary.
 - Receive a report from the Treasurer and approve the Annual Accounts.
 - Receive a report from those responsible for certifying the Club's accounts.
 - Elect the members onto the committee.
 - Agree the membership fees for the following year.
 - Consider any proposed changes to the Constitution.
 - Deal with other relevant business.
 - Confirm details of Insurances.
- c. Notice of the AGM will be given by the club Secretary with at least 28 days' notice in writing stating the location of the meeting, its time and a brief description of the business to be transacted shall be given to all members.
- d. Except in exceptional circumstances, one third of the members of the committee shall retire at the meeting, typically based on length of service. Retiring members shall be eligible for re-election.
- e. Proposed changes to the constitution shall be sent to the Secretary prior to the AGM, who shall circulate them at least 7 days in writing before an AGM.
- f. All members have the right to vote at the AGM.
- g. The quorum for AGMs will be 15

- h. The Chairman of the Club shall hold a deliberative as well as a casting vote at general and committee meetings.
- i. A Special General Meeting (SGM) shall be called by an application in writing at least 14 days before the appointed date to the Secretary supported by at least 5 of the members of the Club. The committee shall also have the power to call an SGM on 14 days' notice by decision of a simple majority of the committee members. Members shall be sent details of the subject of business of such an SGM.
- j. All procedures shall follow those outlined above for AGMs.

9. Amendments to the constitution

This constitution (which may be supplemented by formal articles if a Company or a CIO Constitution) will only be changed through agreement by a simple majority vote at an AGM or SGM.

10. Discipline and appeals

- a. All concerns, allegations or reports of poor practice/abuse relating to the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults will be recorded and responded to swiftly and appropriately in accordance with the safeguarding policy and procedures of the Club which shall be approved yearly. The Club Welfare Officer (CWO) is the lead contact for all members in the event of any safeguarding concerns.
- b. All complaints regarding the behaviour of members should be presented and submitted in writing to the Secretary.
- c. The committee will meet to hear complaints within [21] days of a complaint being lodged. The committee has the power to take appropriate disciplinary action including the termination of membership.
- d. The outcome of a disciplinary hearing should be notified in writing to the person who lodged the complaint and the member against whom the complaint was made within 7 days of the hearing.
- e. There will be the right of appeal to the committee following disciplinary action being announced. The committee should consider the appeal within [30] days of the Secretary receiving the appeal.

11. Health & Safety

At mounted events, members are required to wear hard hats to the current standard as defined in the BRC Rules for that year as well as any other safety wear for a specific discipline. This shall include items of tack, whips and spurs. Any committee member will be happy to check any item that a member is unsure of against the current BRC rules. Random checks may be carried out at members shows.

The committee of Tivyside Riding Club will carry out risk assessments for each venue and activity where necessary and these risk assessments will be reviewed on an annual basis or in the event of an incident. The committee implement all measures that are practicably appropriate to ensure the safety of its members and anyone attending events.

It is the responsibility of all members, their friends and family attending any Tivyside Riding Club event to act in a manner to ensure the safety of themselves and of others. No member should behave or act in such a way where their actions may cause damage to themselves or others.

12. Safeguarding Policy

Children, young people and vulnerable adults should be able to enjoy sport and recreational activities like horse riding in a fun, safe environment and be protected from harm. Everyone who participates, coaches, volunteers or work within equestrianism have a duty of care to safeguard their welfare.

The Club will carry this out in-line with the British Equestrian Federation Policy on Safeguarding. Committee Member will be designated as the Safeguarding Officer and will be responsible for putting this policy into practice.

13. Liabilities, Indemnities and Insurance

- a. Depending upon the Constitution of the club, the committee members may have personal liability for all liabilities and indemnities of the club. They shall consider carefully their obligations in this regard. If the club is formed with its own legal identity, liabilities will be limited to the value of the shares or membership held by individual members of the club.
- b. Whilst affiliated to the British Horse Society, the club shall be entitled to benefit from Public and Employer's Liability Insurance as per the BHS Schemes of Insurance. It may also take out Property, Directors and Officer's Liability and other insurance as required, and shall present details of such insurance to its AGM each year. The club shall seek to take out appropriate schemes of insurance, particularly with regard to potential property damage or personal injury claims to which the club may be subject based on its ordinary club activities, and confirmation as to the details of the schemes of insurance held shall be presented to each AGM of the club.
- c. THE CLUB, IT'S COMMITTEE OR PERSONS ACTING ON THEIR BEHALF SHALL NOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY ACCIDENT OR INJURY TO ANY PERSON OR PROPERTY HOWSOEVER CAUSED

14. Dissolution

- a. A resolution to dissolve the club can only be passed at an AGM or EGM through a majority vote of the membership.

- b. In the event of dissolution, provided that the club is solvent, all debts should be cleared with any club funds. Any assets of the club that remain following this will be transferred not to the committee, as resolved by the EGM or AGM to a suitable Not for Profit organisation or the British Horse Society.

15. Declaration

The Tivyside Riding Club hereby adopts and accepts this constitution [together with the Articles/other formal constitutional documents presented to it].
