
A – Harder, Better, Faster, Stronger

- 1. naloga Listen and read the dialogue and underline the adjectives. Which of them are short and which are long adjectives?

TAPESCRIPT 46

- Luka: I'm struggling with my presentation for English. I don't only want it to be good, I want it to be better than last year. Can you help me?
- Ana: Sure. Let me see. Our teacher said the most important thing is to structure your material. Think about what you want your listeners to hear and remember. Not everything in your presentation is important in the same way. Some things are more important than others. You also need to know that people don't listen to you in the same way all the time. Their attention goes up and down, and you need to know when that happens so you can help them stay focused.
- Luka: Oh, this sounds so difficult! At least not as easy as the presentations last year in my other subjects. That was definitely easier.
- Ana: Don't worry about that. That's life. Everything seems hard in the beginning, and later it gets even harder. But it doesn't mean it's the hardest thing you've done in your life. It just means you need to sit down and work on it. I'm sure that when you look back after your presentation's done, you won't think it was too hard. You'll probably say something like, that was so easy!
- Luka: So what's the most efficient way to structure my presentation?
- Ana: This is the most often used structure I've found on the net. Let's see how far you've come.

B – The most Beautiful Girl in the World

- 1. naloga Listen and read the text about Nina talking about her presentation and underline the adjectives. Which of them are short and which are long adjectives?

REŠITEV

Short adjectives: short, sick, easy, great, good

Long adjectives: future, worried, confident, elderly, working, well-prepared, fantastic, correct, thrilled, wonderful

TAPESCRIPT 47

Yesterday I gave a short presentation on my future profession at English. I was a bit worried because I hadn't had a lot of time to practice at the weekend, but in the end, I got a 5 for presenting. I'm going to be a nurse when I finish school and, because I already had my work placement in the summer, I was confident enough to talk about wearing a uniform and working night-shifts. I also talked about taking care of sick children and elderly people. It was easy for me to talk about my working day. I spoke loudly enough so everybody could hear me, and I didn't only focus on the teacher, but was able to establish eye contact with all of my classmates. I used my well-prepared Powerpoint presentation and luckily I didn't go over the time limit that the teacher had set. I felt fantastic in the end, because the teacher praised me for my great pronunciation, the correct use of tenses and good vocabulary. My classmates were thrilled and applauded for such a wonderful presentation.

C – Stronger

- 1. naloga Listen and read the text and think about the meaning of the underlined words. What are they?

REŠITEV

The underlined words are adjectives and adverbs.

Adjectives: difficult, best, useless, hard, bad, important

Adverbs: nearly, best, well, carefully, honestly

TAPESCRIPT 48

Ana: So, are you nearly finished with the presentation?

Luka: Not at all, I only started describing my future profession, and then I either had no idea what else to write or had problems with English tenses.

Ana: What is the presentation about again?

Luka: Me and my profession.

Ana: That shouldn't be too difficult. You know yourself best and your future profession, too! So you just need to structure your information well and carefully support it with visuals.

Luka: What do you mean? Structure? Support? Honestly, I don't even know what you're talking about! I'm useless! This is too hard! I'll tell her to give me a bad mark, and that's it.

Ana: Oh, come on! You aren't giving up before you even tried! I'll help you find the structure and visual support! But let's first think about what is important. (to be continued ...)

 Luka: I am. And I've practised it for a couple of times already. Do you want to be my audience?
 Ana: Sure. But would it be OK if we did it in the evening? I wanted to go for a walk with you now.
 Luka: I'd rather do it now so I can fix anything you think could be improved. And we can go for a walk after we're done, in the evening. Would you mind doing it now? It's only five minutes long and I'd feel much better then.
