1. naloga

Listen and read. Underline all the verbs and find out what tense they are in. What do we express with these tenses?

TAPESCRIPT 42

- Tara: Hi, Ana! How are you? How were your holidays?
 Ana: Great! I finally had enough time to do all the things I couldn't do during school. And you?
 Tara: It was ok. Nothing special. I didn't go anywhere but I found a great summer job. I didn't get a lot of rest but I earned some money and I gained a lot of experience.
 Ana: But summer holidays are perfect for doing nothing!
 Tara: So what did you do?
 Ana: Well, not much. I took it easy. But guess what! Something is new ... I've just finished my first skirt. My mum's taught me to sew! I was sewing all day yesterday but here it is now! Look!
 Tara: Oh, show me! I really want to see how it looks.
 Ana: Give me a sec. See? I'm wearing it now! It's navy blue and pink with a yellow flower on the left. It's short and trendy. What do you think of it?

TAPESCRIPT 43

Luka: So did you like working in the hotel kitchen, Tara?

Tara: I did! I'm pretty sure I'll be able to work there during some weekends as well. It's always good to have some money.

Luka: I quit my job. I didn't like it there and wanted to come back home. I'm checking some new advertisements to find myself a part-time job for the weekends, as well. But closer to my home, too! Oh, look! Here's the ad that Ana applied for!

Tara (reading the ad):

Cashiers needed for the summer / Job Description and Duties

Cashier employment with T Stores usually stands as an entry-level position. Job duties for cashiers mainly involve a great deal of customer interaction and assistance. By running a computerized register system, employees proceed all T Stores purchases. Additional duties for T Stores workers in general include handling returns, stocking shelves, and opening or closing stores, depending on the shift. The position carries very little hiring requirements, which may help first-time job seekers hoping to enter the workforce. T Stores workers must exhibit skills that include great communication skills, timeliness, availability, and willingness to follow directions. If you think you are the right person for the job, send your CV and cover letter to info@T-Stores.com

Listen to the conversation between Tara and Ana and circle true (T) or false (F).

TAPESCRIPT 44

- Tara: Hi, Ana. You promised yesterday we can meet soon so you can help me with Maths.
 Ana: Sure. What time do we finish school today?
 Tara: The last lesson starts at 2 p.m., so we're free at quarter to 3.
 Ana: Hmm. That's too bad. There isn't enough time to start working on Maths at 3 because I'm meeting Luka half an hour later at the cafe.
 Tara: And that's also when my bus leaves. So that was a bad time anyway. What about later? 5 p.m. for example? I'm free then.
 Ana: I need to see my dentist at 5. I hope to finish there soon and I can see you after that.
 Tara: Ok. I wanted to have dinner with my grandparents at seven, but I can call them and tell them I'm not coming. Or perhaps you can come to the dinner with me and we can study there. My grandma is a fantastic cook and she always prepares whatever I want.
 Ana: That sounds great. I usually get hungry at 7 anyway. How much time do we have then for studying? I need to catch the last bus back home. Do you know when the last bus leaves?
 Tara: Midnight, I think. That gives us plenty of time.

Ana: What are you doing this afternoon, Tara?

Tara: I'm reading company profiles with Sara, and then we're writing a cover letter. We need it at school tomorrow. After that, I think I'll take my dog for a walk. I'll call you when I come back. What are you doing in the evening?

Ana: There is a film on TV at 8 that I'd like to see. Forrest Gump.

Tara: Really? I'll come and join you.

Ana: Why don't we call Nina, Luka and Tim and we can go out after the film finishes?

Tara: Yes, let's! That's a good idea!
(after the film)

Ana: Shall we go to the Irish Pub now?

Nina: Sure! Let's start there and then do a pub crawl. I've seen posters. They have special prices today for Halloween.

Tara: I'll join you later, I have to feed the dog now.

Tim: But that's not today, it's tomorrow! Why don't we meet tomorrow at noon, have a pizza, go to the swimming pool and then do the pub thing in the evening? We haven't seen each other for a long time and it would be nice to catch up with all of you!

F – Gonna*NAMIG

Naslov te enote je namenoma takšen, zato da lahko nagovorite s temo dijake, ki gonna poznajo večinoma iz filmov in glasbe. Mogoče ga celo uporabljajo pogosteje kot going to, zato je pomembno, da vedo, katera varianta je primerna v določenih situacijah, in da so oziroma da postanejo kritični tudi do rabe slovnice v pesmih, filmih itd.

1. naloga*NAMIG

Omenite, da going to go ni običajna raba prihodnjika z going to, saj go opustimo in se raje izražamo s strukturo Present Continuous.

Luka: Nothing really. We talked about work placement, but it's weekend, we don't want to talk about that!

Luka: We're waiting for some people and then we're going to have pizza. After that we're going to go for a swim in the swimming pool and we're going to catch up since we haven't seen each other for a long time. Do you want to join us?

Peter: Sure. Are there any other plans for today?

Nina: Of course. We're going to go to a pub crawl in the evening for Halloween.
